DEATH AT HIGH POINT.

Interesting Relics Found by a Michigander—Personal.

Special to The Telegram.

High Point, Feb. 21—Misses Anna and Mary Campbell, of Glendon, sisters of H K. Campbell of this place, arrived last night to make this their future home.

M. A. Smith, whose illness has been announced in the columns of the Telegram, died last night at 7:15 at his home on Thomasville street. of Bight's disease. For several months Mr. Smith had been in poor health but the symptons were not showing when he retired last Friday night. The next morning he was found unconscious, from which he never rallied. The deceased leaves a wife and four children, two brothers, W. L. Smith, who is in Florida, and Ed. Smith, of Winston, and one sister, Miss Mamie Smith, of this city, to mourn their loss. The interment will take place in the cemetery here.

J. L Banner, of Mt Airy, a former resident of this city arrived here last night to spend a day or so. Mr. Banner says that the smallpox is a thing of the past in his town.

A Gentleman by the name of Talbott, of New York city, a late visitor here, has in his possession a button which has an interesting history. Several months ago Mr. Talbott purchased land in the State of Michigan and in making improvements on same run across two or three mounds, which looked rather inviting to the pick. On excavating these mounds two or three silver buttons and other old relics were found. On the buttons were inscribed the number "44." The quaintness of the buttons put him to thinking and on looking into history Mr. Talbott found information concerning them. Evidently the buttons adorned the uniforms of the forty-fourth English regiment, the most of which perished on these lands 205 years ago. As the buttons are silver they are in a good state of preservation.

I learn that our representatives to the state council, Jr. O. U. A. M., at Durham, will ask for the next meeting of the council to be held in High Point I trust that their request will be granted. High Point is able to take care of the brethren, I think.

Washington's birthday will be observed tomorrow with appropriate exercises. Superintendent Charles H. Mebane will be present and address the school in the afternoon. He will also make a talk at night to which every one is invited.

The Colonial Tea

The birthday of the Father of His Country will be duly observed in Greensboro. At Mrs Bernard's tomorrow night will be given an old time Colonial tea, at which George and Martha with their friends will be present, arrayed in the costumes of the Revolutionary period. Come out and help celebrate the patriotic occasion. A full program will be published in tomorrow's evening papers.

General Kirkland in Greensboro.

General W. W. Kirkland is visiting his sister, Miss Kirkland, at the Normal College General Kirkland was a distinguished Confederate officer and still preserves his soldierly bearing.

General Kirkland is a first cousin of Admiral Kirkland, who, at the time of his death during the Spanish-American war, was the highest officer in rank in the United States navy.

Try to Break Jail.

It was discovered this morning that a number of prisoners confined in the Guilford county jail were trying to saw or file their way out. Considerable headway had been made when the guard discovered the attempt and put a stop to it. Visits inside the jail have not been very frequent since smallpox appeared there and the prisoners thought it would be a good time to walk out. It is pretty certain that had they escaped they would not have contributed largely to the spread of smallpox here. They would have vacated the town, and would, perhaps, have been the cause of some of our sister towns establishing a quarantine against the Guilford county jail.

EXPECT RELIEF IN TWO DAYS

Ladysmith Reported Relieved by Buller

REPORT NOT YET CONFIRMED

Heliograph Message Says the Boers Have Removed Long Tom—Relief in Two Days.

London, Feb. 21—It is reported that Ladysmith has been relieved. It is announced at Windsor town council that the Queen has heard the news. The report is again current in the Berlin bourse and the London stock exchange. Although it is possible that the report is true no news has been received to confirm it. Officials at the war office say they are unable to confirm the report, but the public believe the queen has again forestalled the authorities.

London, Feb. 21—Noon—A despatch from Durban says that General Buller's forces have been crossing the Tugela river at Colenso all night long, and that there are now four thousand on the north bank of the river. Hart's brigade is all on the north bank. Determined efforts are making by engineers to repair the railroad bridge so that trains may run. A pontoon bridge has been constructed over the ford at the foot of Hlangwana and the heavy artillery is being taken over it. The Boers are not offering strong resistance, occasionally firing from Groblers Klocf.

General Buller is endeavoring to mount big guns on Hlangwana, which can be used on the ridges north of the Tugela and along the line of railway as far as Nelthrope with good effect. It is believed that General Buller will continue his forward movement to Ladysmith without rest. The Boers are still retiring, leaving a rearguard, it appears, entirely as a patrol.

Ladysmith by Heliograph to Colenso, Feb. 21—The Boers have removed the Long Tom from Bulwana hill. General Buller's naval guns are now reaching the Boer positions and we expect relief within two days.

DOGS GAVE THE ALARM

London, Feb 21—It is reported that General McDonald, commander of Highland brigade, was severely wounded in battle yesterday.

No news was received up to this afternoon regarding Cronje's army, though there are persistent rumors that an engagement is in progress. It is reported that Col. Plumer, who is moving to the relief of Mafeking, surprised the Boers in a night attack on Crockodile pass. The Boers were strongly entrenched While the British troops were struggling through barbed wire entanglement, dogs gave the alarm and the Boers opened fire. The British made a bayonet charge, which was met by an explosion of dynamite by the Boers. The British retreated.

Boers made a determined attack on Gen. Clement's camp today at Arendell. Their big gun and Vicker Maxim harrassed the British infantry several hours, till both were silenced by 5-inch gun of the English.

Another heliograph dispatch from Ladysmith says Buller's capture of Blays Hill, which was plainly visible from Ladysmith, put everybody in good spirits, and that they believe relief to be only a matter of a few hours.

A private telegram from Berlin says that the Conje is in a bad position, and bearing out yesterday's report that he is surrounded and has a time limit in which to surrender.

Brevities.

By the method of procedure decided upon by the republicans in Kentucky, every office in the state will be tied up by Saturday, and no state business will be transacted for some time to come. On that day the election board will decide the minor contests. If they decide in favor of democrats an injunction will at once be asked to prevent them taking charge. The action will go the court of appeals, thence to the supreme court at Washington.

A military commission will meet at Colamba today to try members of a Filipino band of guerillas which attacked a squad of Americans and killed a corporal. The charge is murder and assault with intent to kill, and the case is important as foreshadowing the treatment of guerillas as bandits.

The Charlotte Observer says that Mr. R. B. Hunter, county superintendent of Mecklenburg county, is a candidate for the democratic nomination for state superintendent.

The Mills at Spray

"Spinning machinery is being installed in Spray Mill's addition. The total equipment will consist of 2,000 spindles. Looms for the newly-built Lilly cotton mills are being put in place. There are now 1,50 looms in operation in the weave sheds of Spray and by May and increase of 400 will be made.

The Leaksville Woolen Mills will shortly build a $20,000 addition to their very successful plant.

THE EWART CASE RECOMMITTED.

BUT WILL NOT LIKELY EFFECT UNFAVORABLE REPORT.

Favorable to Quay—South Learning to Take Precaution—Want a Resident Clerk of Courts, Charlotte.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Feb. 21—The recommittal of the case of Judge Ewart to the sub-committee of the judiciary committee, by the full committee, will not have any particular bearing upon the case. The recommital was done at the instance of Senator Pritchard, who is making the leading fight for the confirmation of his friend, and was for the purpose of allowing the senator to present some additional evidence. Colonel R. B. Glenn, who was United States district attorney under President Cleveland, is in the city, and appeared before the sub-committee for the purpose of presenting some additional evidence in favor of confirmation of Judge Ewart. Colonel Glenn stated that the nomination should be confirmed, as the course of Judge Ewart during the past two years has been acceptable to the bar of the district, and he is looked upon as an able and impartial jurist.

It is not believed that the recommittal of the case will change its aspects in the slightest degree. The sub-committee were unanimous in their report against Ewart before, and there is no reason to believe that the evidence now presented by Senator Pritchard, in the person of Col. Glenn will change the situation any. It is thought that the sub-committee will again report the nomination adversely, although they may hold off their report for several days. As to the full committee, there is no way to judge of what their report will be. Both sides are hopeful that the report will be favorable to them.

Several southern senators are quoted as being favorable to the seating of Senator Quay upon the certificate of the governor of Pennsylvania. Among those who are said to favor him are Senators Daniel, Butler and Sullivan.

Ex-Senator Blanchard, of Louisiana, is among the well known southern gentlemen in Washington Senator Blanchard stated the other day that the weather last week was quite cold a New Orleans for that section of the country, but he stated that the people are getting used in the south to sudden changes like this, and are learning to take precautions. He does not think that in his state any great damage has been done to the crops.

At the Weather Bureau nothing has been received to indicate that any great damage has been done in Florida to the orange or other fruit crops, though it is a little too early to begin to receive reports here. The weather bureau predicted the cold wave in Florida and Louisiana several days before it came; therefore the fruit growers had amp'e warning to take precautions.

Representative Bellamy, of North Carolina has presented to the house resolutions of the chamber of commerce of Charlotte, North Carolina in support of the bill for the promotion of exhibits in the Philadelphia museums. He has also presented petitions of the members of the bar of Charlotte, and Gantonia, and of the chamber of commerce of Charlotte, to provide for the appointment of a resident clerk of the circuit and district courts of the United States at Charlotte.

The comptroller of the currency has approved the merchant's national bank of Baltimore, Maryland, as reserve agents for the Murchison national bank, of Wilmington, N. C.

The Strongest Will Win.

Special to the Telegram.

Winston, Feb 21—Col. R. B Glenn returned from Washington today, where he appeared in the Ewart case yesterday. Col. Glenn says the fight has narrowed down to a matter of the personal popularity of Senators Pritchard and Butler. He does not pretend to say which will win, but thinks it will be the man with the strongest pull.

A large company for the establishment of a furniture factory in this city will be organized here in a few days. It will be a strong company and the plant established is expected to be a large one.

French's Message That Made Glad Hearts in Kimberley.

Modder River, Monday, Feb. 19—Although the rapid march of General French's division was marked by a number of conflicts, the actual entry into Kimberley, was unopposed. When the British were still eight miles off the signalling corps interpreted a heliograph garrison to Modder River, saying: "The Boers are shelling the town."

The garrison was incredulous and thought the message was a Boer ruse and flashed the query: "What regiment are you?"

The reply satisfied the defenders of Kimberley that the anxiously awaited succor was at hand and a few hours later General French, at the head of a column, made a triumphant entry into the place, the people surrounding the troops and intermingling with them cheering wildly grasping the soldiers' hands, waving flags, hats and handkerchiefs and exhibiting in a hundred ways the intensity of their joy. The inhabitants had been on short rations for some time, eating horse flesh and living in burrows under heaps of mine refuse. Diminishing rations were served out daily at 11 o'clock, in the market square, under the shell fire of the enemy, whose guns opened on the square whenever the inhabitants assembled. No horse food was left.

Throughout the seige Cecil Rhodes provided the natives with work and food and thus kept them quiet.

The miles of convoy, bearing provisions for the relief column and the town, slowly winding its way across the plain in the direction of Kimberley was the gladest sight which greeted the eyes of the beseiged for four months.

General French's march was so rapid and the heat so intense that many of his horses died of exhaustion.

At the crossing of the Modder River the Boers bolted, leaving their tents, guns, oxen, wagons and large quantities of ammunition in the hands of the British. Moving northward, the Boers again attempted to stem the advance, but General French turned their flank and reached his goal with insignificant losses—seven men killed and thirty-five wounded during three days, from Wednesday, February 14th to Friday, February 16th. After a night's rest at Kimberley, General French's column pursued the Boers to Brontvelt, surrounded the kopjes on which they were posted and shelled them till nightfall when the Boers fled, leaving many dead.

London, Feb 19.—(3:38 p. m.)—The War Office has received the following dispatch from General Buller:

"Chiveley Camp, Feb. 18th—I yesterday moved around the enemy's flank. The Queen's who had bivouacked on the northern slope of Cingolo, crossed the nek and supported by the rest of the Second Brigade, under Hildyard, assaulted and took the southern end of Monte Cristo.

"The Fourth brigade on the left or western slope of the Welch Fusileers, supported by the rest of the Sixth brigade, assaulted the easter flank of the enemy's position, while the Second brigade cavalry, on the extreme right watched the eastern slope of the Monte Christo and drove back those of the enemy attempting to escape from our artillery fire. Assaulted by heavy artillery fire on their front and flank, and attacked on their flank and rear, the enemy made but slight resistance and abandoning their strong position, were driven across the Tugela. I have taken several camps, a wagon load of ammunition, several wagons of stores and supplies and a few prisoners.

"The weather has been intensely hot and the ground traversed was exceedingly difficult. But the energy and dash of the troops have been very pleasant to see. They have all done splendidly. The work of the irregular cavalry, the Queen's the Scots Fusiliers, and the Rifle brigade was, perhaps, most noticeable while the excellent practice and naval guns and the steadiness the gunners, under at a time very accurate fire, was remarkable. The accurate fire the naval guns of the Chiveley was of great assistance

"Our casualties are not, I think, many."

F. R. Mender Killed.

Catskill, N. Y., Feb. 21—F. R. Mender, for 12 years manager of the American National Express Company here, was found early this morning with a bullet hole through his head. His friends scout the idea of his being short in accounts.

It prevents consumption. Children always like it. Mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

GETTING ON THE DEFENSIVE.

A GENERAL RETREAT AMONG THE BOER ARMIES.

The End of Their Aggressiveness Now Thought to be in Sight—Total British Loss 11,102.

London, Feb 21, 4:15 a. m.—The Boers are leaving all the positions held by them on British territory and are concentrating for the defence of their own. Sir Redvers Buller thinks they are about to raise the seige of Ladysmith, and this is the large news of the day. General Clements reports that the force confronting him has been greatly diminished. Ten thousand men are estimated to have gone from the Colesburg district alone. The Boers are also retracing their steps from Zululand. Thus they are relaxing their hold on all sides not assembled to oppose Lord Roberts. He is pressing on steadily towards Bloemfontein. This is shown by his inconsequential telegram from Paardeberg, 50 or 60 miles away. Doubtless he is miles behind the column that is pursuing the Boers and the next important news may be the occupation of Bloemfontein. Nothing has been heard from the chase of Cronje for two days. There is a strong disposition to believe that favorable information has been received by the war office but is being withheld until the operations culminate in something more conclusive. There is an equally strong disposition to think that General Cronje has got away. Owing to the lack of transport, the British are not likely to invade Boer territory except where Lord Roberts is operating. General Buller will have to stop at the Drakensberg mountains. Probably a part of his 40,000 men will ultimately join the legions of Lord Boberts. If, as General Buller avers, the Boers are retreating from him, then the news on every side is favorable to the British. Nevertheless troops continue to go up. The war office that the call to veterans to rejoin the colors, together with the bounty, will bring 45,000 men to the home defence. The urgency with which home defence is pressed excites some wonder. With the casualties just reported the British losses in killed, wounded and captured now aggregate 11,102.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

The Boers are sending large forces from the Transvaal to the Free State. An official proclamation orders that all the males from 16 to 60 to take up arms, and the enthusiasts say that the age limit must be put at 100.

To Our Friends and Customers.

We regret to announce to our friends and customers that on the morning of Feb. 4th, 1900, our stock of Clothing, Hats and Furnishings was almost entirely destroyed by fire and water, and our building badly damaged, which will unavoidably cause a suspension of our business for a short time.

Contracts have been made and the workmen are rebuilding our store, which will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible, and we hope to be able to reopen on or about April 1st, at our old stand, with an entire new and beautiful stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishings.

All the stock saved from the fire has been sold to Mr. Jacob Goldstein of Danville, Va., and Mr J. Rosengartner, of Raleigh, N C.

We feel grateful to all our friends and customers for their very liberal patronage in the past, and hope by fair dealing and a strict attention to business to merit a continuance of same.

We would thank all parties indebted to us to call and settle same, as we are anxious to balance our books. Also request all parties having accounts against us to present same. GRATIFYING NEWS.

The South African war news of the past day or two, and especially that of this morning, that the Boers are preparing for a general retreat from British territory and for the defense of their own, should be gratifying to those desiring to see this bloody war closed as soon as possible, and who believe the end will come only when England has been victorious There has not from the beginning been a shadow of doubt as to the ultimate result of the war. If there is need of proof of this statement it is only necessary to recall that fact of England's utter failure to do in months, what she expected to do in so many weeks, and the determined resolution with which she has gone on in spite of failure and the dissappointment in the army, in spite of hostility where sympathy was expected, in spite of dissention and important opposition at home, and lastly in spite of the colossal fact that every fresh disaster jeopardized here entire empire because the snarling continental powers were ready and waiting to give her any trouble they could make. Indeed, there is evidence, as illustrated by the course of Russia in Persia, that if any opportunity offered, these powers were ready to actually seize British territory. Nothing so well shows the supurb courage and determination of the British heart than the way in which these difficulties have been met. The Russian bear has reached out his treacherous paw in a way he would not have dared do had England been free, and he may well take notice of Lord Beresford's remark, last week, that at another time England would not have passed by such an action unnoticed.

With the retreat of the Boers into their own territory, where they will be wholly on the defensive, we may expect to have even fiercer fighting than has yet occurred. If a general retreat is occurring, the crisis for England may be said to be passing. The empire is only shaking itself together for serious work, and confidence in the British future may well take a jump. Nothing has been more surprising to the world than the magnificent dash and fighting of the Boers, which has undoubtedly challenged the admiration of the world, but England has now truly "carried the war into Africa," and she will begin to gradually settle down into her old prestige as the greatest and most powerful empire of recorded history.

THE CASE OF CONSUL MACRUM.

There is hardly a newspaper subject of more current interest in a small way than that of Consul Macrum, of Ohio, late the United States representative at Pretoria. The cloud under which this gentleman has been resting since his ignominious withdrawal from his post last fall after being refused leave of absence by his government, has not been lifted by his efforts, since arriving in this country a short time ago, to put the blame on the foreign office, though his charges against the administration have caused some flutter in his favor. As remarked, Mr. Macrum, at the very time a representative was most needed at pretoria, the Transvaal capital, repeatedly asked for leave to come home, which was, it would seem very properly, denied him, whereupon he picked up his grip and came anyway. He was naturally subjected very much to the charge of cowardice. This must have added a great deal to his irritation, and he might reasonably have been expected to talk some when he landed.

This Mr. Macrum has done. He charged that the administration practically deserted him, that his mail was censored by the British military agent at Durban, and that there was a secret understanding between these and the English government. Representative Wheeler put through the house Monday a resolution calling upon the state department for information as to the truth of the charges: Mr. Wheel- said:

"I am confident that Mr. Macrum has sufficient evidence in his possession to show that his letters were opened by the military censor at Durban—letters that bore the official seal of the United States. I understand that Mr Macrum brought those letters back to this country with him and that he still retains the envelopes, with the sticker that the military censor put upon them.

When he came to Washington I am informed that neither the Secretary of state nor the president would give Mr. Macrum an audience and would not allow him to make any statement to them whatever regarding the treatment he had received in South Africa.

All of which shows one of two things, that the administration has subjected itself to severe and just criticism, granting that mail was intercepted, which looks a little shady, or that Mr Macrum is a rotten egg. One thing in his favor is that he appears to be anxious for a congressional investigation. It is a pretty little case, with some rough sledding ahead for somebody.

The American Girl.

There are few modern plays that equal "The American Girl." In fact, Mr. H. Gratton Donnelly has written something that should live; it is perfect from a dramatic standpoint.

The play has strong situations; there is nothing of the impossible about it, and the climaxes are good. There is a delightful little story in it which is well told, and the moral is excellent. There are indeed passages that appeal to the heart in no light manner, and the person who can witness the action of the play with eyes perfectly dry is callous to an abnormal degree. The world is better for a little bit of sympatoy with the trials of a brave and deserving woman, and in this play there is cause for tears. There is no sentiment to tire one. It is the love of the child for its mother and of the mother for her offspring, which reaches the heart in "The American Girl."

For the Babies.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucous, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. The Best Medicine For Rheumatism

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Hermanie, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. Mr. John S. SALT RHEUM CURED BY
Johnston's Sarsaparilla
QUART BOTTLES.
JUST SEEN IN TIME.

Slight Skin Eruptions are a Warning of Something More Serious to Come. The Only Safe Way is to Heed the Warning. Johnston's Sarsaparilla is the Most Powerful Blood Purifier Known.

Nature, in her efforts to correct mistakes, which mistakes have come from careless living, or it may be from ancestors, shoots out pimples, blotches and other imperfections on the skin, as a warning that more serious troubles (perhaps tumors, cancers, erysipelas or pulmonary diseases) are certain to follow if you neglect to heed the warning and correct the mistakes.

Many a lingering, painful disease and many an early death has been avoided simply because these notes of warning have been heeded and the blood kept pure by a right use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA.

Miss Abbie J. Rande, of Marshall, Mich., writes:

"I was cured of a bad humor after suffering with it for five years. The doctors and my friends said it was salt rheum. It came out on my head, neck and ears, and then on my whole body. I was perfectly raw with it. What I suffered during those five years, is no use telling. Nobody would believe me if I did. I tried every medicine that was advertised to cure it. I spent money enough to buy a house. I heard JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA highly praised. I tried a bottle of it. I began to improve right away, and when I had finished the third bottle I was completely cured. I have never had a touch of it since. I never got any thing to do me the least good till I tried JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. I would heartily advise all who are suffering from humors or skin disease of any kind to try it at once. I had also a good deal of stomach trouble, and was run down and miserable, but JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA made me all right."

The blood is your life and if you keep it pure and strong you can positively resist disease or face contagion fearlessly. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA never fails. It is for sale by all druggists, in full quart bottles at only one dollar each

Had Nerve as Well as Weight.

In one of the newspaper composing rooms in this city there is a typesetting machine operator who is a great lover of horse racing A good share of his wages goes to the bookmakers at the local tracks during the racing season, although for some reason he never acquired the poolroom habit and has always refused to put down a bet unless he was "there to see how the dogs ran.' He is fully six feet tall and weighs about 200 pounds. His size suggested a joke to one of his friends during the racing season last summer.

"Going to Sheepshead Bay today?' the friend asked.

"I'd like to, but if I go I won't have much left to bet with."

"I can give you a jockey's badge.' said the friend.

"Gimme it." replied the printer, eagerly, never realizing the ridiculous contrast between his size and that of even the heavyweight jockeys. Armed with the jockey's badge, he presented himself at the race track gate and showed his badge. The ticket taker looked at him in astonishment.

"There's one entered in the fifth race," was the reply. And his nerve so paralyzed the gatekeeper that he was admitted.—New York Sun.

Hot Times.

"I can remember a good many years back," said a Detroit veteran in politics, "and, whatever may be said as to the integrity of our present statesmen, campaigns are conducted in a great deal more moderate tone than they used to be. Then it was the usual thing to indulge in the strongest possible abuse of men and parties.

"I once heard a joint debate between a couple of candidates for our legislature that will serve to illustrate. They taunted and berated each other till all other questions were lost sight of in the popular anxiety to see which excelled in this style of warfare.

"Finally the hotter headed of the two burst out in an announcement that he could whip his rival or any of his friends.

"'That reminds me,' said the other coolly, 'of a dog my father used to have that could whip any dog in the neighborhood or any that came that way with the teamsters.

"'What's the application, sir?' roared the other 'I'll stand no innuendoes, sir. Make your application, if you dare.

"'It is simply this, my pugnacious friend—no one ever thought of sending father's dog to the legislature.'"

The fire eater remained at home.—Detroit Free Press.

A Beetle That Cuts Metal.

There is no use trying to keep in confinement a curious little creature known as the metal cutting beetle.

Not long ago an entomologist caught one of these beetles and, unaware of its peculiar ability for sawing through anything in its way, put it in a cardboard box. Soon tiring of solitary confinement, or probably thinking its captor had forgotten to provide it with a door, the beetle cut one for itself and crawled out.

It was captured and put in a wooden box, and as soon as the novelty of its new home wore off, again the persevering insect cut a hole in the box and escaped.

The next time the escaped prisoner was caught it was put in a small glass jar with a tight fitting pewter cover, punctured to let in air. But the metal cutting beetle from Mexico scorned to live in a pepper box and gnawed a hole big enough to allow it to creep out into the big world again. And this time it was not caught.

A Statesville special to the Charlotte Observer says that the Cooleemee Company, composed of Mebanes, Dukes, and other wealthy citizens, have already placed an order for 100,000 spindles and 5,000 looms for a mill which will be the biggest in the south. It will cost $3,000,000 and will likely be built in that vicinity.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures
That is what it was made for

Childless people often drift apart. The wife seeks to satisfy her heart craving, by society, "Always roaming with a hungry heart." The husband finds the home dull and goes to the club. The happiest homes are those which echo to the love and laughter of childish voices.

The conditions which preclude motherhood are often remediable. They grow out of a diseased or enfeebled condition of the delicate female organs. When these conditions are removed, and vitality and elasticity given to the organs of motherhood, it frequently follows that the home is gladdened by the coming of a healthy, happy infant.

There is no other medicine that will do as much for women as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It dries up disagreeable drains, allays inflammation, heals ulceration, cures female weakness, and establishes the delicate womanly organs in a state of perfect health and vigor.

There is no alcohol, opium or other narcotic in "Favorite Prescription."

Any sick woman may consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., by letter, free. Every letter is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential.

"I had been a sufferer from uterine trouble for about three years, having two miscarriages in that time, and the doctors that I consulted said I would have to go through an operation before I could give birth to living children," writes Mrs. Blanche E. Evans, of Parsons, Luzerne Co., Pa. "When about to give up in despair I saw the advertisement of Dr. Pierce's medicine and thought I would give it a trial as a last resort. I bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and after taking it felt better than I had for years. After taking four and a half bottles I gave birth to a bright baby girl who is now four months old and has not had a day of sickness. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

An Editor's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold, which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—B. A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. 'All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

An Overland Wire to Asia.

Washington Post.

"There is more than one way of opening up communications between the United States and the Palilppines," said Mr. S. O. Rhoem, of Tacoma, at the Normandie last evening. "Congress is very busy in trying to find out whether the government or private parties should lay a cable from San Francisco to Manila. Some men who are never heard of in a political way are at work trying to construct what is practically an overland telegraph line to Manila.

Long before the first Atlantic cable was laid an effort was made to construct an overland telegraphic line to Europe. It was the plan to have the telegraph line run to Alaska and then, with a short connecting cable, have the line extended through Asia to Europe. You will now find piled up in Alaska thousands and thousands of tons of the wire which was to be used for this line. It was sent up there more than a half century ago. I think Field himself was interested in it. The Atlantic cable was successful and the plan was dropped. The plan has been revived. A company has been organized in Canada and is trying to connect Alaska with an overland telegraph line. If this is successful a cable will be laid to Asia, and the Russian government has voted a subsidy to connect this line with the end of the telegraph line of the trans-Siberian railroad."

Women Save a Schooner.

Atlantic City, Feb. 20—A schooner lying at the wharf today took fire while the men were absent. The boat was saved from total destruction by the woman in the vicinity With washboilers, buckets, pans, etc., they bravely kept up the fight till the men arrived.

Hon. Clarke Howell, the Georgia member of the democratic national committee, left Atlanta at noon yesterday for Washington, to attend the meeting of the committee. Mr. Howell thought the choice of the convention city was between Kansas City and Milwaukee, as both were putting up a strong fight. He had no preference in the matter.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Eczema! The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Eczema broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse, and the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many patent medicines were taken, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years old, and has a magnificent growth of hair. Not a sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. The debate in the house yesterday on the Porto Rican bill ran warm again. The republicans are said to be getting uneasy about the fate of the bill, as they have only a majority of 14 over the opposition, and hence 8 of them could defeat the bill by voting against it, and there are 12 to 15 republican votes in doubt.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help: but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist. Guaranteed.

No Men There.

From the Philadelphia Press.

Mr. Krabby—Thank goodness! there's "no marrying or giving in marriage in heaven."

Mrs. Krabby (sweetly)—Naturally, my dear. A marriage is impossible without a bridegroom.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. DYSPEPSIA

"My wife suffered for many years from Nervous Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sleeplessness and Nervous Debility," writes John Kellog, Philadelphia. "We tried many physicians and numerous remedies, but with no results, until I heard of Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. We bought six boxes, and the results far surpassed our expectations. She now eats and sleeps well, is gaining in flesh, and her color, which had got to be yellow and sickly, is now as fresh as when we were first married, and I tell her that Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure has made her ten years younger."

WINE OF CARDUI

WOMEN WHO WORK.

ST. LOUIS, MO., Aug. 12.

Though only 19 years old, I suffered from pains and female troubles two years. Last spring I got so bad I had to quit work. I had to support myself, and could not afford a high-priced doctor. I got one bottle of Wine of Cardui and that made me feel better. Have now used several bottles and am well. My mother used the Wine for Change of Life and was greatly relieved.

MISS MARGARET WALSH.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

Many girls and women find it necessary to earn their own living in various kinds of employment. Their work is often so hard and confining that the health breaks down. Their delicate constitutions are unfitted for tiresome tasks. Weakness nearly always makes its appearance in the peculiarly delicate womanly organs. Constant standing on the feet, and coming and going at the beck of a superintendent or foreman, induces falling of the womb, leucorrhœa, headache and backache. The pay of women workers is often so notoriously small that when sickness comes they have no money to engage skillful physicians. To them Wine of Cardui is truly a blessing. It cures them of their ills at a small cost, and they can act as their own physicians. No doctor can do as much for "female troubles" as Wine of Cardui.

MRS. ROSENBLATT DEAD.

The Remains Will be Carried to Greenville, Tenn.

The dark shadow of death hangs over another Greensboro home. The critical illness of Mrs. J. M. Rosenblatt has been noted in these columns, and hope was expressed for her recovery. The exposure she met with a few mornings ago when, in a somnambulistic state, she left her bed and was found later in college branch, brought on a case of pneumonia, from which she died this morning about seven o'clock. Her brother-in-law, Dr. C. P. Fox, of Greenville, Tenn., arrived last night. Her sister, Mrs. H. H. Gouchenour, of the same place, has bern with her during her illness.

Mrs. Rosenblatt was Miss Edith Lucy Marshall and was married to Mr. J. M. Rosenblatt, Sept. 3d, 1891. Greenville, Tenn., is their old home, and they came to Greensboro several years ago, where they have made many warm friends, who deeply sympathize with the stricken husband and four little motherless children.

A short funeral service was conducted at the residence on West Market street at four o'clock this afternoon by Rev. Horace Weeks Jones, and the remains will be taken to Greenville, Tenn., for interment, arriving there tomorrow afternoon. The little children will remain in Greenville, temporarily, with their mother's people.

A Real Golef.

From the Washington Star.

"Hump," said Aguinaldo, "that's not the pathetic point of it. What do you think of a man who has a lot of faithful followers for sale and can't find a buyer."

Turned the Hose on Him

An eastbound train during the extreme cold weather had on board a colored tramp who was riding the "blind baggage." The engineer found him out and ordered the fireman to wet the coal in the tender The hose was turned on a few moments, then stopped. The engineer looked away over the tender and remarked: "You have not half wet that coal." The fireman thought he caught the situation and turned the hose over the pile of coal and the tramp got the full benefit of it. At the next stop he was willing to get off, which he did without losing any time.

Party at Mrs Jackson's.

A novel kind of social entertainment was the apron and necktie party given at Mrs. Jackson's on Spring Garden street last night, for the benefit of St. Andrew's church. The young ladies all wore aprons of different design and a necktie to match each apron was placed in a bag and well shaken up. Each young man paid ten cents for a tie and drew it from the bag without looking. This entitled him to become the escort for the evening of the young lady wearing the apron that matched his tie. This novel feature resulted in a neat little sum being realized for the church.

The Next Attraction.

The next attraction at the academy of music will be A. Q. Scammon's Company in "Side Tracked." The great American tramp, the knight of the highway and box car, has his inning at that place on Friday night, February 23rd. To him has been accorded a regular ovation. He appears in a role which appeals to the hearts of every audience, and makes each spectator laugh as each familiar aspect of tramp nature is displayed. but arouses generous applause when the heart of oak is seen beating under the jacket of the wayfarer. As the title of the play suggests. Horatio Irving Booth, the wanderer, becomes apparent, because he is side-tracked. The box car in which he pursues his transcontinental peregrination, is laid over at a siding, and he drops in upon events which lead up to a tragedy, in which he becomes a most important witness. E. H. O'Connor achieves a success as a tramp, and wins unlimited applause for a company efforts. Billy Bowers scores a triumph as Fritz Grabhold, boss of the section gang, and gives a natural yet extremely humorous characterization Gertrude Barnes, the soubrette, has a faculty of keeping her auditors in a happy mood from the time first appears until the fall of the curtain. Her songs and dances are well rendered features, and receive merited recognition.

THE PENN MUTUAL'S DIVIDENDS ARE GUARANTEED,

other Companies are estimated. The new 40 per cent. guaranteed dividend policies of the PENN MUTUAL are very attractive, they are issued at about the same rate as their regular limited payments, and great deal less than most other Companies charge for the same policy.

All policies are incontestable from date of issue for any cause except for non-payment of premiums; the most attractive policy issued by any Company.

Write, stating age, and we will be pleased to furnish you the cost.

"Order is Heaven's First Law"

Has been often said. Anyone who thinks a Lumber yard is an easy place to keep in shape has never tried it. We now look a little distressed—but give us time and we'll ask you later on to come and see whether we know what we've got and "where we are at." In the meantime, drop in and see us—never mind the confusion.

We have the men and the machinery, and the stuff is rolling in two or three cars a day.
